A NEW WAY

To Pay Debts

LENGTH, 275 FEET.

Rent is due and no money in the house.

The land-lord gives the tenant time up to three o'clock.

The shoe-maker then devises a new scheme to get money.

He tells his wife to lie upon the couch and paints a sign "Died from Small pox," which he puts at the head of his accomplice.

The butcher comes for his money. The shoemaker tells him his poor wife died and he has not even money enough to bury her.

The good hearted butcher, instead of collecting his money, adds to the funeral expenses of the deceased wife.

The same scheme is worked upon the baker and other people calling for money.

When however the schemer himself lies down and puts up a sign "We both died from Small-pox," his trick is discovered and he is made to pay up.
